

A PROGRAM OF THE MASTER GARDENER ASSOCIATION OF CAPE COD

The motto of the Master Gardeners is "Helping Others Learn to Grow." In the spirit of this motto, the Master Gardeners Association, in conjunction with Cape Cod Cooperative Extension, is offering its annual series of educational classes in Backyard Horticulture. Classes are designed for gardeners of all abilities.

A wide variety of topics will be covered, including:

- | | | |
|------------|---------------|---------------------|
| Soils | Annuals | Organic Gardening |
| Vegetables | Do's & Dont's | Container Gardening |
| Herbs | Perennials | And more... |

- Backyard Horticulture runs for eight weeks.
- The fee for 2012 is $75.00.
- Please choose one of two locations:

Barnstable County Fairgrounds
1220 Nathan Ellis Hwy, Route 151, East Falmouth
Mondays, February 13-April 9, 12:00-3:00

Harwich Community Center
100 Oak Street, Harwich
Fridays, February 3-March 23, 1:30-4:00

Advance registration is necessary. Cost is per person for the full session and we are not able to split up costs for individual classes. Enrollment is limited and classes do fill up quickly. Your check holds your spot, so please mail your form immediately. Please note: No refunds are available after the first class. Call the Cape Cod Cooperative Extension at 508-375-6697 with any additional questions.
